

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Sachi A. Hamai, Executive Officer-
Clerk of the Board of Supervisors
383 Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration
Los Angeles, California 90012

At its meeting held January 22, 2008, the Board took the following action:

21-B

Supervisor Antonovich made the following statement:

“Technology is a significant component to the success of our global economic future. Los Angeles County has become a world leader in the creation of an appropriate eco-system for the formation and growth of technology companies. It is our entrepreneurial enterprises that shape and drive productivity enhancement and lead the way for the enterprise of the future. Los Angeles County is a recognized leader in many industries such as entertainment, transportation, biotech, and computer software. Many of the best technology companies in the world were started in Los Angeles County.

“Many premier educational institutions and a dedicated and skilled work force that provide the backbone for a world class economy call Los Angeles their home. It is imperative that Los Angeles County continues to support and promote the expansion of its high tech economy.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Antonovich, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, the Board proclaimed January 28 through February 1, 2008 as “Technology Week” throughout Los Angeles County.
